

LOUIS F. LOCASCIO, J.S.C., RET.
Curriculum Vitae

2009-present: ~~Gold, Albanese & Barletti, Esqs.~~, 58 Maple Ave., Red Bank, N.J. (732) 936-9901, of counsel.

1992-2009: Judge, Superior Court of N.J

(A) Civil Division, 10 years- tried or settled every type of case, including but not limited to negligence (auto, fall downs), L.A.D. (age, gender, disability, race discrimination, hostile work environment), breach of contract, eminent domain, legal and medical malpractice (including wrongful death and wrongful life), common law and consumer fraud, products liability, employment disputes, punitive damages, tort claims, fire injuries, Portee claims, frivolous lawsuit claims, civil assault & battery, civil conspiracy, malicious prosecution, defamation, commercial and construction litigation, shield law claims, invasion of privacy, and slapp (strategic lawsuit against public participation).

(B) Family Division, 4 years-settled 100% of dissolution cases which included issues of: cause of action, equitable distribution, alimony, custody & visitation, child support, college expenses, health insurance, passive, pension, 401K and inherited income, pendente lite sale of marital home. Also 1 year in domestic violence court issuing temporary and final restraining orders as well as the voluntary, involuntary, dismissals and violations therof.

1982-92 : Associate Drazin & Warshaw, Esqs., Red Bank , N.J.

Tried hundreds of personal injury jury cases. Certified by N.J. Supreme Court as civil and criminal trial lawyer.

1970-82 : Associate (1970-75), partner (1975-82), Wilentz, Goldman and Spitzer, Esqs. Woodbridge, N.J. tried numerous personal injury cases and every kind of criminal case, including murder, robbery, larceny, drugs, rape, assault & battery, misconduct in office, bribery.

1969-70 : Law clerk, Hon. Harold A. Ackerman, J.S.C. (now Fed. Dist., N.J.) sitting in civil div.

1966-69 :Seton Hall Law School , editor, law review

1962-66 Columbia University A.B. liberal arts