

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

Join Us!

The United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, in conjunction with the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey, presents:

Social Media and Litigation: “The New Normal”

This presentation will be conducted by a panel of practicing lawyers and judges and will explore the role social media plays and will continue to play in changing the litigation landscape. The presentation topics will include: forms of social media, tips for retaining information stored on social media platforms, evidentiary issues that are caused by social media, helpful guidelines when accessing social media during pre-trial discovery and using social media at trial and navigating ethical issues when dealing with social media. The jury consulting firm, Magna Legal Services, also will make a presentation on the use of social media in modern litigation practice.

This CLE event is free of charge, and lunch will be provided.

This program is pending approval by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.8 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 1 qualifies as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.
