

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

IN RE: INVOKANA (CANAGLIFLOZIN)
PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION

MDL NO. 2750
Master Docket Case No. 2:16-md-2750

JUDGE BRIAN R. MARTINOTTI
JUDGE EDWARD S. KIEL

THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO: ALL CASES

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 8

This matter having been resolved, in part, through the efforts of all parties; the Court having entered Administrative Order No. 1 on August 16, 2018 (ECF No. 270), Administrative Order No. 2 on April 3, 2019 (ECF No. 283), Administrative Order No. 3 on July 24, 2019 (ECF No. 295), Administrative Order No. 4 on August 5, 2019 (ECF No. 298), Administrative Order No. 5 on October 24, 2019 (ECF No. 311), Administrative Order No. 6 on October 30, 2019, and Administrative Order No. 7 on November 13, 2019 (ECF No. 317); counsel and the parties having substantially complied with the terms therein; the vast majority of matters having been resolved and/or dismissed; the Court having reviewed the docket sua sponte and having identified several cases, the filing of which predates 2019; and for good cause shown,

IT IS on this 15th day of February 2022,

ORDERED that counsel for those Plaintiffs listed on Exhibit A to this Order show good cause on or before April 1, 2022, why their cases should not be dismissed without prejudice, or why other relief should not be granted. The Court will, on April 18, 2022, at 1:30 p.m., hold a case management conference on this matter, and to assess the status of those cases and claims pending on the docket. In the event counsel for the Parties reach an agreement prior to April 18, 2022, that the case can be removed from the list set forth on Exhibit A, counsel for the parties may present that agreement to the Court at the April 18, 2022 conference.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk's Office shall post this Order on all individual dockets whose case number appears on the attached Exhibit A.

HON. BRIAN R. MARTINOTTI
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE