

PUBLIC NOTICE: Telephone Scam Regarding U.S. District Court

The US District Court of New Jersey is advising the public to be on alert for a phone scam that spoofs, or fakes the Court's name and telephone number on the recipient's voicemail and/or caller id.

Callers have targeted residents around the region, claiming to be representatives of District Court and demanding monies from victims for bond payments and/or other legal notices.

The Court does not call private citizens threatening or demanding money. The public is reminded to never give out unsolicited requests for personal information to callers that you don't know.

For more information or to verify a pending legal matter, please call our divisional office to address any concern:
