NOTICE TO THE BAR

THE FEDERAL COURTS, CIVICS & YOU LEARNING CENTER – REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE WITH LEARNING CENTER EXHIBITS

In a June 2, 2025 Notice to the Bar, the District Court for the District of New Jersey announced the launch of its Federal Courts, Civics & You Learning Center website. That Notice explains that the website is the first of a two-part initiative to foster civics education. Part two is a physical facility in the Trenton Courthouse, for which preparations are well underway.

The Court envisions that the Trenton-based facility will feature, among other things, exhibits that connect visitors to the rich history and culture of our State, this Court, and the Judges who have made, and continue to make, an indelible mark on our Court.

Mindful of this vision, we seek the Bar's assistance. If you are or know of any District of New Jersey Judge, past or present, we want to hear from you! Specifically, we ask that individuals who: (1) own or possess an object/item relevant to the history of our Court or our State; and (2) are willing to loan or donate that object/item for display within the Learning Center. If so, please contact Maureen Gary, Community Outreach Coordinator, at Maureen_Gary@njd.uscourts.gov by October 30, 2026. Ms. Gary will discuss with you more details regarding our Learning Center and our anticipated needs.

The District Court of New Jersey thanks you in advance for consideration of our request and your interest in the Federal Courts, Civics & You Learning Center.

For the Court

Renée Marie Bumb
Chief U.S. District Judge
